Well, you're the charming type
That little twinkle in your eye
Gets me every time
And well there must have been a time
I was a reason for that smile
So keep in mind

As you take whats left of you and I
Tell me I'm a screwed up mess
That I never listen listen
Tell me you don't want my kiss
That you're needing distance distance

Tell me everything but don't
You say he's what you're missing baby
If he's the reason that you're leaving me tonight
Spare me what you think
Tell me a lie.

Tell me I'm a screwed up mess
That I never listen listen
Tell me you don't want my kiss
That you're needing distance distance

Tell me everything but don't you
Say he's what you're missing baby
If he's the reason that you're leaving me tonight
Spare me what you think
Tell me a lie.
